Sir:-

In reply to your letter of the 27th instant, requesting to be informed as to whether you could use the standard silver dollar appropriation for the purpose of meeting the incidental expenses of your mint for the present fiscal year, you are informed that while it is desirable to use the regular appropriation for this purpose, inasmuch as the same will not be sufficient, you can use the standard silver dollar appropriation to such extent as may be necessary to pay contingent expenses pertaining to the coinage of silver dollars, also for copper used in silver dollars. Very respectfully,

John P. Morgan

Director of the Mint.
